

Equity Checks and Balances

Incorporating these elements into your high-impact tutoring initiative will strengthen the program's equity, ensuring that it is accessible, relevant, and supportive for all students

INCLUSIVITY FOR MARGINALIZED COMMUNITIES

- Cultural Competency Training: Training for tutors and educators to understand diverse cultural experiences.
- Linguistic Inclusivity: Providing bilingual resources to overcome language barriers.
- Community Feedback: Actively seeking feedback from students and communities to adapt and improve the tutoring approach.

TECHNOLOGY ACCESSIBILITY

- Providing Devices and Internet Access: Offering technological resources like tablets and Wi-Fi hotspots.
- Technical Support and Training: Ensuring effective usage of technology through support and training.

UNIVERSAL CURRICULUM DESIGN:

- Diverse Learning Methods: Incorporating multiple means of representation, expression, and engagement.
- Flexibility in Learning and Assessment: Allowing diverse ways for students to demonstrate their understanding.
- Culturally Relevant Content: Adjusting curriculum to include various cultural backgrounds.

CONTINUOUS EVALUATION AND IMPROVEMENT

- Regular Assessment: Monitoring academic progress and the program's inclusivity.
- Stakeholder Feedback: Gathering insights from students, parents, tutors, and teachers.
- Ongoing Tutor Training: Providing continuous professional development for tutors.
