

Delivering Success

BOOKNOOK'S TUTOR EXCELLENCE + COMMITMENT

At BookNook, we are committed to equipping schools with a scalable network of tutors supporting K–8 students nationwide.

Every high-impact tutoring session is conducted by a vetted adult using research based materials written by expert educators. Our synchronous learning solution sets students up for success, matching them with tutors dedicated for the duration of the instructional cycle.

FREQUENT + CONSISTENT: At least 2–3 sessions per week, 30 minutes

HIGH-QUALITY INSTRUCTIONAL MATERIALS (HQIM): Aligned to standards and based on research

RELATIONSHIPS: Well-trained, consistent tutors. One-on-one, face-to-face, or small group

DATA + PROGRESS MONITORING: Informed instruction and impact measurement of the program

Qualified + Trained

BookNook tutors are selected for their expertise and diverse skills. Requirements include being over 18, U.S. citizenship or permanent residency, at least three years of teaching or tutoring experience (one year with a Bachelor's degree), and preferred online teaching experience. All tutors go through BookNook Tutor Certification and may participate in ongoing professional development.

BookNook's Tutor Excellence

Consistent + Committed

BookNook tutors sign up for the entire implementation cycle, not single appointments. Our tutors are carefully screened, vetted, and certified prior to their first session with students.

IMPROVED READING SKILLS

Effective + Efficient + Equitable

Third-party research shows with effective and consistent virtual tutors leveraging research-backed instructional materials, BookNook significantly increases student performance in as little as ten weeks.

Students engaging in 20+ BookNook sessions achieve nearly ten percentile points higher in reading skills than non-users in only 10 weeks!

The diversity of BookNook tutors more closely matches the demographics of public school students.

Our tutors reflect the communities they serve.
